English Language Teacher

With my international background and fluent English skills I'm a valuable contribution to your school. You will find me to be well spoken, energetic, confident, friendly and approachable, the type of person; you can trust and rely on. I am a team player and I work well with management as well as with my colleagues. Loyalty and integrity apply to my upmost principles. Being well travelled and having dealt with many different nationalities and cultures I will be an assist to your multilingual and multicultural school. There are no borders in our digitalised and globalised future and through open-mindedness, creativity, building confidence and an innovative model we can prepare our children for the future communicating in a language that is not their own.
